THE FIRST CHRISTMAS

Why did God become a baby?

IT WASN'T FOR THE PRESENTS

He came to rescue us.

The baby in the manger was God himself, come to live among us. He grew up to live the one perfect life, then died on a cross in our place, because every one of us has broken God's law. Three days later he rose again.

That is why Christmas is good news. Anyone who turns from their sin and trusts him is forgiven.

> The Word became flesh, and lived among us.
